PROJECTS

Mental Health Simulator(C++) | Link Jun' 25 – Jul' 25

- Constructed a console-based Mental Health Simulator in C++ that enables multiple users to record their daily moods and receive personalized well-being suggestions.
- Engineered linked lists for multi-user management and a dynamic stack for mood history tracking, along with real-time activity recommendations and file-based mood logging.
- Enhanced user engagement by displaying mood history, providing suggestion prompts based on emotional state, and generating overall mood trend analytics to support self-reflection.

Fit Freaks (HTML, CSS, Java Script) | Link Feb '24 – Mar '24

- Designed a sleek dark-themed gym website with bold red accents and clear CTAs to create a strong visual identity and attract user engagement.
- Integrated interactive Swiper carousels, a mobile hamburger menu, and a responsive layout using Flexbox and CSS Grid for smooth multi-device navigation.
- Optimized performance with lightweight JavaScript and external libraries (Font Awesome, Google Fonts, Swiper), resulting in a fast-loading site with a complete conversion funnel from About → Pricing → Trainers → Newsletter.

Complaint Management System(Html, CSS, Java Script) | Link Sep' 23 – Nov' 23

- Developed a user-friendly Complaint Management System to collect customer details and register complaints smoothly.
- Implemented a two-step form process using HTML, CSS, and JavaScript for capturing user information and complaint details with validation and dynamic page transition.
- Achieved an interactive user experience that confirms successful submission and allows users to return to the home page effortlessly.
